

The time has come again, and I need to return to the North Pole. You were very good and I had a wonderful time with you! Let's keep that NICE behavior going for next year!
Remember to be kind to others and do good things - you will make the NICE list for sure! I can't wait to see you next year!

Good Morning!

I'm back from the North Pole on another Elf mission to make sure you stay on the Nice List! Christmas is coming and we have lots to do! I'll be keeping my eyes on you! Naughty or nice, which will you be? Come find me each morning and we will see!
